The Mayor also wants us to pay for his police force's operational costs? Isn't the normal mayor thing to do to try to get what Ottawa got? Not get more?

Subject: Support for Ottawa Business

Good Morning Chrystia and Helena,

Thank you for your calm and steadfast leadership during these tumultuous times.

I understand that an announcement will be made shortly about financial supports for Ottawa businesses impacted by the protests.

I fully support that.

I ask that Windsor businesses directly impacted by the Ambassador Bridge blockade be included in that funding support.

Obviously, it would be difficult to redress the impact on businesses due to disrupted supply chains – however there are small businesses along Huron Church itself and in the adjacent corridor that were severely impacted by the blockade and which continue to be impacted by the current police and security measures that have closed off pedestrian and other access.

In addition – I have spoken to the Mayor of Windsor and he has requested that our federal government help with the costs of the decisive and effective action of Windsor Police Services that removed the blockade and opened the bridge to cross-border trade.

Thank you kindly for your consideration. I am available to discuss at any time.

Sincerely,
Irek
